Travis Bourne, Chapter Director, Central Gulf

Travis Bourne received bachelor’s degrees in Business Management and Spanish Translation from BYU in 1995, and an MBA from Northwestern University in 2002. For the past 18 years he has worked in various financial roles for Exxon Mobil in Texas, Virginia, and Western Europe. He and his wife, Amy (BYU ‘94), have enjoyed spreading the spirit of the Y in all the locations they’ve lived, including twice co-chairing the Houston chapter. They have four children who are all BYU Cougars themselves. When not rooting passionately for BYU sports, Travis also loves spending time in the mountains and chasing elusive birdies on the golf course.

Michael W. Middleton, Dean of External Relations, BYU Law

Mike is Assistant Dean of External Relations for BYU Law, overseeing Events, Fundraising, and Alumni Relations. Before BYU Law, Mike was an Assistant Athletic Director and Director of BYU’s Cougar Club. A summa cum laude graduate with two degrees from BYU, he has been an adjunct public speaking instructor, Education Week presenter, and script writer for “Music and the Spoken Word.” Mike enjoys camping, hiking, sports, coin collecting, and writing. He married BYU All-American track athlete Laura Zaugg; the couple have three children and live in Provo.

Alumni Chapter Replenishment Grants

The Alumni Chapter Replenishment Grant Program is the financial aid system for BYU Alumni Chapters. Alumni Chapters raise funds for BYU student grants with the understanding that students accept a moral obligation to pay back the grant when they are financially able and replenish what they have been given.

To participate in the Alumni Chapter Replenishment Grant Program, an organized Alumni Chapter needs to:

1. Raise funds
2. Invite students to apply
3. Select the grant recipient by committee
4. Award the grant
5. Invite recipients to give back

1. Chapters Raise Award Funds
   • Funds can be raised in a variety of ways, including ticket sales to events and activities sponsored by the chapter.
   • Funds raised for replenishment grants are sent to the BYU alumni office for deposit in the chapter’s account.
   • Direct donations are made through Philanthropies. This is done at give.byu.edu/chapter

2. Students Apply for Funds
   • Students may apply for an Alumni Chapter Replenishment Grant during the normal scholarship process at: saasta.byu.edu/auth/scholarship
   • After completing the Personal Information, Essays and Financial Need portions of the application, students are invited to apply for Alumni Chapter Replenishment Grants.
   • The student selects the chapter they belong to and completes the additional required sections.

3. Chapters Select Award Recipients
   After BYU has received and processed all scholarship application materials, the Scholarship office forwards all chapter applicants to the BYU Alumni office. The Alumni office then forwards the applicants to the appropriate chapters by the beginning of April each year.

• BYU Scholarship Policies apply to students seeking Alumni Chapter Replenishment Grants. Chapters can establish additional criteria for awarding Replenishment Grants.
• The selection committee must include at least 3 members; 5 or more members is strongly recommended. Family members may not award replenishment grants to relatives.
• Chapters forward their selections to the Alumni office before May 10 of each year with the recipient’s name, the amount of each award, and the specific semesters of the awards.

4. Award the Grant to Qualifying Students
   • Final approval for replenishment grants rests with the Scholarship office. They may deny a grant if the eligibility status of the recipient has changed or the student no longer meets the requirements of the BYU Scholarship Policies.
   • The Scholarship office may also discuss a selection with the Alumni office and the chapter if a student’s financial need circumstances have changed.
   • The BYU Alumni office notifies the award recipients through the university’s AIM system.
   • After receiving notification of the final approval, Alumni Chapters are encouraged to celebrate the recipients through letters of congratulation and a public presentation.

Mission Alignment

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints

Help us meet the challenges of this life and to help us follow Jesus Christ, so that we will be worthy of the temporal and spiritual blessings God wants for us.

(ComeUntoChrist.org)

Assist individuals in their quest for perfection and eternal life. That assistance should provide a period of intensive learning in a stimulating setting where a commitment to excellence is expected and the full realization of human potential is pursued.
Help alumni, the community, and students to understand, experience, and promote the mission of BYU.

Extend the mission of BYU beyond graduation and create advocates for BYU.
